

Municipal
Assessment
Agency Inc.

Municipal Representatives to Board of Directors Elected

The Municipal Assessment Agency is pleased to announce the result of the recent election for six municipal representatives to its Board of Directors. The voting was conducted by a mail/fax ballot following the municipal elections. Elected to a four year term are:

Avalon – Mayor Betty Moore,
Clarke’s Beach

Central – Mayor Jason Roberts, Triton

Eastern – Mayor Paul Pike,
St. Lawrence

Labrador - Councillor Deborah Barney,
L’Anse Au Loup

Urban – Councillor Peggy Roche,
Torbay

Western – Mayor Dean Ball, Deer Lake

“Thank you to all 20 candidates who participated in this process and congratulations to the successful officials,” said Mayor Ball, Board Chair. With the exception of Mayor Roberts of Triton, all of the directors are returning for another term. Mayor Roberts will replace Bob Hobbs, Bishop’s Falls, who has retired from municipal politics. The elected members will join:

Mayor Roger Barrett, Reidville Municipalities Newfoundland and Labrador representative

Ms. Vida Greening, Port Blandford, Professional Municipal Administrators representative

Mr. Dave Denine, Mount Pearl, taxpayer representative

Mr. Dave Blundon, Gander, taxpayer representative

The first meeting of the newly constituted board is scheduled for February 9, 2018 in Port Blandford.

Media contact:

Sean Martin, Executive Director

709-724-1540/smartin@maa.ca

December 15, 2017

Municipalities in Newfoundland and Labrador (excluding the City of St. John’s) which impose a real property tax or a business tax based on property values use the services of the Municipal Assessment Agency. As the entity responsible for providing a fair and effective property assessment service to 224 municipalities, we are pleased to support local government in providing valuable service to the people of Newfoundland and Labrador.